

visions of Africa

South Africa • Mozambique • Zambia • Botswana • Namibia • Tanzania and Zanzibar • Kenya • Mauritius • Seychelles

Sun City

In the heart of an ancient volcano, lies a world-class leisure resort that is modelled on pure fantasy and African rhythms. Just over two hours from Johannesburg and adjacent to Pilanesberg National Park, here you can discover the 'Big Five' and enjoy an elephant back safari. The mythical Lost City echoes an ancient civilisation and the Valley of Waves has a wave pool, slides, chutes and beaches. A vast array of activities include a full range of water sports, two Gary Player designed golf courses, horse riding, tennis, squash, quad biking, archery and clay shooting. The resort is family friendly with its Kamp Kwena children's club. Fine restaurants, entertainment venues, casinos, shops and a health spa make this resort a unique attraction.

Sun City

The Palace

Legend has it that The Palace was built for an ancient African King. Its royal opulence features intricate mosaics, stunning sculptures and beautiful furnishings in a fantasy jungle world of streams and waterfalls. The architecture is majestic, the lavish rooms are luxuriously appointed and the lounges casually elegant. Gourmet cuisine is served in the Crystal Court or Villa del Palazzo.

Prices are from £132 per person per night. Low season special rates are available if staying for three nights or more.

Cascades

This sophisticated hotel is linked to Sun City's glittering Entertainment Centre, The Lost City's Hall of Treasures, is an idyllic prelude to the splendid international cuisine of The Peninsula Restaurant or a quiet drink in the Vistas Bar. Take a refreshing stroll through the surrounding lush gardens with tumbling water lagoons and tropical birds.

Prices are from £76 per person per night. Low season special rates are available if staying for three nights or more.

Sun City Hotel

Built around a spectacular atrium and overlooking the acclaimed Gary Player Golf Course, this hotel is close the Entertainment Centre housing the Sun City Casino, theatre, nightclub, famous stage revues and cinema. All of the guest rooms have superb views of the Pilanesberg Mountains. Choose from a remarkable selection of dining experiences ranging from the African themed Calabash to the oriental delights of The Orchid with its Sushi Bar, to name but a few of its ten bars and restaurants.

Prices are from £72 per person per night based. Low season special rates are available if staying for three nights or more.

Kwa Maritane Bush Lodge

In this 'Place of the Rock', the untamed wilderness of Pilanesberg can be explored from the comfort of an open vehicle or on a bush walk. Take the underground tunnel to the 'Hide' for a more intimate glimpse of the 'Big Five'. Spacious rooms have views overlooking the bush and the facilities include two pools, tennis courts, outdoor chess, a boma area and a restaurant with a viewing terrace.

Prices are from £72 half board per person per night.

Sun City